

CALENDAR CUBES

A company wanted to make a calendar by using two cubes to display all of the dates from the first of the month to the thirty-first of the month. On each side of each cube was written a single digit. Figure out which six digits should be written on each cube.

